ROLL OF HONOUR

OF NAIRNSHIRE

Containing Names and Addresses of those in each Parish who are serving their King and Country in the great European War.

Every effort has been made to give a complete and accurate Roll, but the Publisher does not hold himself responsible for any omissions or errors.

T. R. RAMAGE.

NAIRN,

March, 1915.

Nairnshire Roll of Honour.

NAIRNSHIRE has responded nobly to the call of her King and country, and from the statistics herewith given, it will be seen that the county has reason to be proud of her position, and should rank amongst those counties in Britain that have given the largest percentage of their manhood in this the most serious time of Britain's history. Each parish is given separately, so that it can be seen at a glance how many have gone out from these districts, and to what units they belong. The Navy is largely represented; also the Seaforths and Camerons, for which Nairnshire is part of the recruiting area. The total number serving is 894, to which Nairn Parish contributes 548, Auldearn Parish 112, Cawdor Parish 95, Croy Parish (Nairnshire part) 40, Ardclach Parish, 40.

Of this total 163 belong to the Naval Services, 288 to the Regular and Kitchener's Armies, and 439 to the Territorial and other voluntary services.

The above figures represent a percentage of 9.59 over the whole county; 20.65 of the male population; and 64.73 of the latter from 18 to 40 years of age.

The Percentages in each Parish are as follows—

	Entire Population.	Male Population.	Male Population 18 to 40 years.
NAIRN ...	9.28	21.35	66.42
AULDEARN ...	8.97	17.44	56.58
